

INDICATIONS: For Tennessee and the Ohio Valley, a slight change, followed by falling barometer, cold north-west winds, and generally clear weather.

BISMARCK has at last made it up with the Pope.

WHILE Grant boomed in Chicago, Hayes boomed in New York.

COL. BOB. INGERSOLL says it's Grant or Blaine on one side, and some man out of New York on the other.

THE Atlanta Constitution says that Dr. Felton's constituency think his letter the right thing, and propose to stick up to him.

MEXICAN dollars, which have been down as low as 75 cents, are reported as worth 97 cents in New York and 99 cents in San Francisco.

THURMAN's red bandana will soon be perambulating the aisles and corridors of the Senate, but it is no longer the Democratic goulash.

NOT only gold has been flowing into this country, but the United States bonds which are held abroad are fast finding their way home again.

HORATIO SEYMOUR, JR., State Engineer elect of New York, is a nephew of Horatio Seymour, Sr., and not a son, as some journals hereabouts had it.

GRANT CLUBS are to be formed throughout all Georgia, is the latest startling rumor. These clubs will have for their object the nomination of Grant by the Democrats.

In a few days Bayard will be seen in the Senate, and then the amusing spectacle will be witnessed of belching all the soft money Senators declaring that they always knew he was right.

We are beginning to fear that Secretary Schurz has made a grand mistake in his Use Peace Commission. That matter will have to be turned over to the War Department yet for adjudication.

PRESIDENT HAYES is very much satisfied over the situation. He says that New York is safe on National issues, that Indiana will go Republican by from 12,000 to 20,000 votes, and that we will carry every Northern State.

If Mr. Charlton wants to be Mayor he had better make all haste to disclaim all responsibility for the article quoted elsewhere, where he gives it as his solemn conviction that "all classes of citizens" are in sympathy with the few men who bribe on election day.

THE situation in Maine remains unchanged. It is no longer doubted that the Republicans will be counted out, and they are preparing to resort to the courts. The Council will not allow any Republican to see the files of the vote, so that it is impossible to tell yet the full villainy of the scheme.

THE novel sight can be seen at Middlebury College, Vt., of a full faculty and no pupils. A sophomore committed some offense against the rules of the College, and was expelled. His class took up the quarrel, and they were all expelled. Then all the other classes followed suit, and they were expelled, so that now there is not a single student in the whole College.

THEY are trying to patch up a peace in New York, but without much hope of success. The Tilden men want to leave the whole thing to the State Convention, but Kelly won't listen to this, for he says Tilden will control the Convention. Kelly's friends want to leave the matter to the National Committee, but Tilden won't listen to this, saying that the National Committee has nothing to do with State matters. The New York Sun, speaking of the breach, says that it is impossible to close it. May the Lord increase their misery.

In the Dispatch of yesterday may be found the following paragraph in a local notice headed, "Are you going to be a candidate?"

"Besides, all classes of our fellow-citizens seem impressed with the salutary conviction that it is nothing but right and highly proper that those whom they support for an office should use the silver half dollars to buy votes with."

This is a heavy charge to bring against one's native city. Of course, allowance must be made for the mortification attendant upon defeat, but it is carrying resentment too far to accuse "all classes of fellow citizens" of being in favor of bribery because they would not elect him Mayor. We do not mean that bribery has not been practiced. Unfortunately, there isn't any doubt about that, but it is unnecessary to do anything but merely mention such a foolish charge as the above. We will give the Dispatch man credit for being much perturbed when he wrote it, and not responsible for what he said. Perhaps the "devil" wanted copy, or his horns hurt him, or his tooth ached, or perchance he did not take our advice and "bille" his chestnuts and was sick on that account.

A Sensational Blood and Thunder Story by Telegraph.

Purporting to Have Been Sent from Morristown to Cincinnati.

TENNESSEE.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 20.—A special from Morristown, Tenn., says that two men named Downs and Anderson, a day or two ago, went armed with rifles to the house of Miss Josephine Williams, near Jamestown, insulted that lady and threatened to shoot a man named Steincipher, if he did not leave. Steincipher, however, snatched a rifle belonging to one of the men and shot Downs dead and clubbed Anderson nearly to death. Steincipher was arrested, but no one appearing against him, was subsequently discharged.

TEXAS.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 19.—A new and important railroad project in Texas, was inaugurated yesterday at Dallas, in that State, by filing the charter of the Texas Trunk Railroad, to run from Dallas south-easterly to the Gulf of Mexico, at or near the Sabine Pass, with a branch from the main line in Angelina or Tyler county, to the Louisiana line, in all, a distance of about 350 miles. The road will run through the best timber section of the State and a great extent of very fine country. Josiah G. Graves, of Massachusetts, was elected President; Wm. L. Cabell, Vice President; Malcom Henderson, Treasurer, and D. A. Robinson, Secretary. The capital stock will be $5,000,000 of which 500 shares were subscribed on the spot.

GEORGIA.

AUGUSTA, Nov. 19.—The heaviest fall of snow in years occurred here to-day, the snow falling for over three hours steadily. The storm seemed to be general in this section.

The races begin here on the 6th of January under the auspices of the Citizens' Association, to continue four days. About $2,000 are subscribed. There will be no entrance fee. The running races will be under the rules of the Savannah Jockey Club, and the trotting races under the rules of the National Trotting Association.

MINOR DISPATCHES.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 19.—Rev. Dr. Ethan Allen died at Newport, Ky., yesterday, aged 84. He was one of the oldest Episcopal ministers in the United States.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Nov. 19.—This evening, at the Trinity Episcopal church, Rev. Dr. Murdoch officiating, Miss Mary Wallace Bainbridge, granddaughter of the distinguished Commodore Bainbridge, of the ship Constitution, was married to Hamilton Cassard, of the firm of Cassard & Son, Baltimore.

Grant's Last Day in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—This being General Grant's last day in Chicago during his present visit, he has been kept busy. At noon the Loyal Legion of the Chicago Commandery gave him a lunch at the Chicago club house, and voted him into the membership of the society by acclamation. General Sheridan and other distinguished army officers were present, and about twenty members of the Loyal Legion from Milwaukee. The General remained at the house of his son, Col. Fred. Grant, from 2 until 3 o'clock. At 3 o'clock he went with a number of citizens to visit the Protestant Orphan Asylum on Michigan avenue. From 5 to 7 he, with Mrs. Grant, was the guest of Lieutenant-General Sheridan and wife, at their house, where dinner was served.

During the evening, Gen. Grant was present at McEickers to witness the performance, by the Marettz opera company, of the new and distinctively American opera, "Sleepy Hollow," written by Mr. Haretzck. The entertainment was under the auspices of the Second regiment, and was one of extraordinary elegance, interest and merit, both as to the representation itself and all accessories of decoration and display. Every seat in the house was occupied, and the scene was one of the most brilliant. The Second regiment and its guests, who numbered several hundred, and a majority of all others in attendance, were in full dress. The decoration inside the theater had been under the supervision of Mr. McVicker, Manager Sharp and skilled florists. On the right of the stage General Grant, Hon. Joseph Medill, William Henry Smith and C. B. Farwell occupied one box, while General and Mrs. Sheridan, with Mrs. Grant and friends, occupied the box on the left.

Clerk Ambrose's Case.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 18.—Contrary to public expectation, the resignation of Clerk Ambrose was accepted this morning, to take effect when his successor shall be appointed. In making the announcement in the Circuit Court this morning, Judge Baxter said: "I would not have concurred in the acceptance if it could in any way obstruct the Government or others in the pending or threatened investigation or in the prosecution of any civil or criminal proceedings which such investigation may render necessary. As I understand the law, Ambrose would be equally amenable for wrongful acts after as before the acceptance of his resignation. We have been informed of criminal proceedings instituted against Mr. Ambrose. When tried one or both of us will be called on to preside. We ought, therefore, to be as far removed from preconceived impressions as practicable." In reference to giving the investigators free access to the books and records for further investigation, Judge Baxter said: "This is not a case for the application of technical law. The facts already developed tend to show that there are others who ought to be exposed. We think we ought to accept all the aid tendered in good faith. Exposure of peculations of officers upon the Government with regard to the animus is in the public interest. It is our purpose to insure every necessary facility to any one feeling an interest in the matter for a full and thorough investigation."

The Maine Situation.

AUGUSTA, Me., Nov. 18.—The situation here is virtually unchanged. The examination of the returns by the Republican Committee and legal adviser of the parties claiming to be Senators and Representatives elect is not yet allowed. Some correspondence has taken place, and the Councilors have been waited upon, but no permission to examine the returns is yet granted. The Republicans to-night aver they will not be permitted to see the returns, and counsel for parties claiming to have been elected in the disputed Districts protest earnestly against not being allowed an immediate examination of the same. Members of the Council, on the other hand, declare that no one, excepting members of the Council, shall inspect them. The Republicans claim that the Democrats, having opportunity to examine the returns, have also had a chance to correct all the errors of their side in advance of the returns being officially opened.

It is generally understood to-night that a resort to judicial process will be had to test at the outset the preliminary question whether those claiming to be elected as Senators and Representatives have not the right to an examination of the returns as an essential step preparatory to an application for correction.

Decrease in Public Debt.

Special to the Cincinnati Commercial.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The debt statement will show a large decrease this month. For several days the Customs receipts have averaged about three-quarters of a million of dollars daily. It is Secretary Sherman's ambition to reduce the public debt below two billions of dollars during the present Administration. It looks now as if he would do it within the next ninety days. It is now only some twenty-seven millions above two billions.

Mr. Arthur Sullivan, composer of the music of "Pinafore," is quick, nervous and magnetic. He is not quite of the medium height, his figure is round, his head large, and his eyebrows are prominent and well arched. He has large, deep, brown eyes, a prominent and slightly cleft chin, shiny, jet-black, curly hair, just streaked here and there with gray and smoothly parted in the middle, and closely trimmed, curled, brownish-black whiskers meeting a mustache.

The career of the famous rebel war ship Shenandoah has come to a sudden termination. A cable dispatch says that it foundered off the Island of Socotra, in the Indian Ocean. Nearly all the crew was lost. At the time of its destruction it belonged to the Sultan of Zanzibar.

SOLID YAZOO.

Full Particulars as to How it was Done.

(Special to the Cincinnati Gazette.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The following letter was received to-day by the brother of Henry M. Dixon, lately assassinated. The name of the writer is suppressed, for reasons which are apparent:

YAZOO CITY, Miss., Nov. 7, '79.
Mr. Frank Dixon:
FRIEND FRANK—The election is over, and I know you are anxious to hear how it passed off. I will not attempt to give you a full outline of everything, for it would take several days to write it. I will only state a few facts in regard to what occurred on the day of the election.

It was understood among the bulldozers that if the negroes could not be induced to vote with them that they would not let them vote at all. As soon as the polls were open at the court house Jim Barksdale, Tom Williams, Whadley, Gibson, Bob Wheelless, Lambeth, and about twenty others took a stand at the gate. Every time a negro would come up to the gate they would demand of him to show his ticket. If he showed an Independent ticket he was knocked down.

They went on in this way until about 11 o'clock, when Jake Holder gave a signal, and all drew their pistols and commenced firing into the air. The negroes all ran off, and of course there was no more voting. The same game was played at Benton and Dover; when all the negroes collected at the polls they commenced firing in the air. You have lived long enough in the South to know that a negro can't stand that sort of punishment. I don't think there was exceeding 500 negro votes cast in the county.

At Silver Creek, where everything was solidly Independent, they would not furnish them with either box or registration book, so that the vote was thrown out entirely. I don't suppose, in the history of any country, such fraud and villainy was ever before practiced on a people. Taylor had about seventy deputies appointed to keep peace and order at the polls, all of which participated in the shooting. Taylor fired four shots. It is amusing to see a negro walk up the streets with his jaws tied up, and whenever he is asked what is the matter, he will answer, "Oh, nothing; I tried to vote an Independent ticket at the court house."

As soon as I can see all the boys from the other precincts I will write the whole thing up and send it to you. Your friend,

More Nuptials at the Catholic Church.
The Catholic Church was again last night the scene of an imposing ceremony, and, as on the night previous, the church was perfectly jammed with eager spectators, a great many having to remain on the outside. This time it was our clever young friend, Mr. Pat. Shea, who led to the altar Miss Nellie Ashe, and they twain were united in the sacred matrimonial bonds, Rev. Father Maron officiating very gracefully and efficiently.

The ceremony being at an end the newly wedded couple and bridal party took their carriages again and proceeded to the residence of the bride's father, Mr. P. W. Ashe, on Reservoir street, where a select party of intimate friends and invited guests gathered, and hearty congratulations were heaped upon the happy couple, and the evening passed off very pleasantly indeed.

At the appointed hour, the party were conducted to the dining-room and served in excellent style to a princely feast of good things. The admirable arrangement and appearance of the table was the admiration of all. A number of valuable and elegant bridal presents were made to the newly wedded couple.

Mr. Shea is one of Knoxville's rising young men, a prominent member of the legal profession, member of the City Council, and also one of the enterprising firm of Shea & Donahoe. Miss Ashe, the fair bride, is a young lady of rare accomplishment, and a shining star in society. We tender our warmest congratulations to the young couple on their auspicious start in married life, and bespeak for them joy and happiness without alloy.

The Beautiful Snow.

For the past two days the mountains to the northeast of the city have presented a beautiful appearance, being capped with snow. From parties on the K. & O. train we learn that it was snowing nicely at Coal Creek and Careyville when they left there yesterday morning. Some parties even claim to have seen a slight fall of the beautiful here, also, early yesterday morning. How it is we can't say.

It is feared that Signor Brumidi, who has for twenty-five years been frescoing the Capitol at Washington, will never be able to resume his work.
